

DOMINICAN UNIVERSITY

School of Education

Scholarship, leadership, and service are the distinguishing characteristics of the Dominican educator and are the foundation of the Conceptual Framework of the School of Education. As Dominican scholars in pursuit of these ideals, candidates in this course will be expected to demonstrate scholarship in all assignments, leadership in discussions, presentations and activities, and service in classroom interactions, field experience journals, and reflection papers.

Criminal Background Investigation Authorization Dominican University

I hereby authorize Dominican University to obtain national, state and local criminal background information on me from the vendor TrueScreen in accordance with policies of the School of Education at Dominican University. I understand that my placement in the schools or with agencies to complete field experience, clinical practice or internship necessary to be recommended for certification or that is a required component of my program coursework is contingent upon the results of the background check. I understand that failure on my part to consent to the check will result in the cancellation of my admission to the course. I also understand that if I am admitted to a course or program, but my background check includes evidence of a criminal history, I may be subject to dismissal from the course and/or program, or may be prohibited from being placed in a particular school district or agency.

Attached is a check or money order payable to Dominican University in the amount of $25.00, or $25.00 in currency to cover the cost of obtaining this information. Results of the completed report will be sent to the Dean of the School of Education at Dominican University.
